Villa Sarda

Accommodates 14 guests in seven bedrooms

Elevated above the picturesque, aquamarine landscape of Sardinia, this private villa evokes pure serenity for the ultimate Mediterranean escape.

Indoor Facilities

This independent villa was crafted in 2007, so it boasts exceptional, modern facilities and luxury. Sardinian marble details and innovative shapes provide guests with a whimsical and charming environment. The entire house receives air conditioning, and guests are also provided with access to telephone and fax.

The villa is divided into two floors. Guests reside in five double bedroom and two twin bedrooms, each with their own bathroom. The ground floor includes three bedrooms, a spacious living room with fireplace, TV, DVD, and CD players, a fully-equipped kitchenette, and dining room. This floor also contains a laundry and ironing room, as well as a spare bedroom with a bathroom. The upper level holds two bedrooms with bathrooms, one of which includes a covered veranda to the pool. On this floor, guests may also access a large living room with a dining area and adjoining kitchen, which lead to a covered terrace.

Outdoor Facilities

The 5,000 square meter, secluded grounds boast a private kidney-shaped pool. Among the spacious terrain are also lush gardens and a stone barbecue area. Guests also have parking availability for two to three cars in an underground garage.
